Code of Ethics

1. We shall strive to maintain professional standards of the educational industry and teaching profession. We will provide only related services for which we are qualified.
2. We will strive to live according to the Word of God in our day to day lives, in our relationships with our students, and in our relationships with other professionals.
3. We will assist our fellow educators, share with them our knowledge and training and collectively strive to maintain the highest professional standards. We will assist them professionally whenever possible.
4. We will endeavor to provide quality educational teaching services and strive to maintain the standards of our respective schools or colleges.
5. We will keep high standards of honesty, morality, and integrity in our transactions.
6. We will endeavor to maintain dignity in our presentation of educational materials and services.
7. We will maintain a professional appearance in the school and in the community we serve.

We recognize New Life Christian Schools and Colleges International and will elevate and maintain the standards that they set forth and hereby accept this Code of Ethics with the knowledge that failure to keep it can result in having our professional certification revoked or suspended.
